NYOA VOLUNTEER UPDATE

As many of you may know the United States is hosting the World Orienteering Championships in October 1993. This will be an exciting and challenging task. In addition to the WOC events an orienteering festival will be held for the public during the week which concludes with the United States Championships. This is the schedule as it now stands:

Wednesday, October 6- Set-up for WOC
 Thursday, October 7- Set-up for WOC
 Friday, October 8 - WOC model event (short distance)
 Saturday, October 9- WOC semi-Finals in short distance.
 Sunday, October 10 - WOC short distance final.
 Monday, October 11 - Public "O" Fest meet on short distance map. Model event for WOC long distance race.
 Tuesday, October 12- WOC long distance event.
 Wednesday, October 13 - Public "O" fest on long distance map. Model WOC event for relays.
 Thursday, October 14- WOC Relays
 Friday, October 15 - Public "O" Fest meet on relay map.
 Saturday, October 16- "O" Fest U.S. Championships day 1
 Sunday, October 17 - "O" Fest U.S. Championships day 2

As you can see it will be a busy week. The WOC attracts about 200 competitors and the "O" Fest may have as many as 2000 participants. It will take almost 500 volunteers to run both events. As you may have guessed USOF is going to need your help. Clubs are being assigned specific areas to staff. The New York Orienteering Association has volunteered to take the finish throughout the week. NYOA has 5 active clubs: CYNO, ROC, BOC, KODAK and EMPO. We are counting on about 25-30 people being available throughout the week. We realize that this a major commitment but we feel that NYOA is up to the challenge. Some NYOA members are already working: Linda Kohn (ROC), volunteer services, Bill Jameson (EMPO) "O" Fest Director, Mark Dominic (CYNO) mapping and vetting, and Rick Worner (ROC) Meet Director October 13th.

We know that people have limited vacation time, work obligations and family commitments to consider, but we are hopeful that you can be with us for as much of the week as possible. The WOC will be very exciting and "O" Fest is by far the largest meet ever held in the U.S. We need your help to make it a "world class" event.

We can't really promise much more than hard and satisfying work. We are hopeful that workers will receive free accommodations for the week at a place similar to Camp Buckner and that in most cases you will be able to compete each day. Other "perks" such as warm ups suits are being negotiated with sponsors. Monday, October 11 is Columbus Day which may be a holiday for a few of you.

Please indicate the days you will be able to work and return the form to Rick Worner, 874 Edgemere Drive, Rochester, N.Y. 14612 ASAP

O IN THE BUFF

The US relays were held at Northfield Mt, near Greenfield MA. Buffalo had only one team entered BUT we looked far better than all the others put together in our new team T-shirts. We put in a gutsy effort and came 9th, only 12 minutes behind the winning team. More importantly we came 1 minute ahead of our arch rivals from CNYO the Dominie team!!! Unfortunately, because a couple of our members are aliens we were unofficial - pretty tough considering that they don't even have green skin or antennas sticking out of their heads.

WORLD CUP.....GANARASKA FOREST

At the New England Championships 10 elite Swedish orienteers entered - and you guessed it, they came 1st-5th in the mens and womens races, blitzing the field.

Apart from it being a rather humbling experience, it was a great opportunity to see some of the worlds best do their stuff in the forest. The Swedes were in the USA preparing for the up coming World Cup events in Ontario and New Hampshire later this year and for the World Championships in New York next year.

If you want to see what elite orienteering is all about, be a spectator at the World Cup Race in Ganaraska Forest near Oshawa, Ontario on October 3. AND you can also run on the WORLD CUP map by entering the two day A meet being held on the same weekend. Take advantage of the weaker Canadian Dollar and participate in some WORLD CLASS orienteering. You wont regret going, but you'll regret not going.

WEST POINT 1992

At the West Point Meet competitors were offered free accommodation at Camp Buckner, West Point Military Academies Summer Camp. In the middle of the night David Cady and his two sons thought that WWII had begun as the West Point tactical assault team stormed their campsite. To make matters worse, a storm blew in and blew away their tent, forcing the Cadys to take refuge in a nearby hotel. And what did the boys think? "Hey Dad, lets go orienteering more."

The orienteering, by the way, was terrific. The maps used for the 2 day event consisted of lots of brown squiggly lines and little black dots, making both navigation and running quite a challenge. 7 Buffalonians ventured to West Point this year, and I for one will be going back West Point for their next event in Spring 1993.

Altogether
Awesome

CAMP SCHOELLKOPF

May 31, 1992

It drizzled with rain and no one relished the prospect of leaving the comfort of the start shelter. Phil Wolfing, meet organizer, was determined not to let us wimp out. One by one he announced our starts. Nobody regretted this - retrospectively of course. Phil had set a range of courses, all physically challenging, with embankment climbing, river wadding and forest bashing. It was enough to bring out the Rambo in Eva Ruutopold, Jeff & Mike Kohlhas, Charlie Wightman and John Wittington who all earned a maximum 20 points toward the Canal Cities Challenge by winning their respective age classes.

June 20, 1992

At Camp Schoellkopf we thought that the weather could not have been any worse. We were wrong. It could have been as wet as the Chestnut Ridge Meet. Perhaps the club should hold meets in drought stricken areas. Greg Hyatt organized a great meet using a challenging scattering of control sites; What a way to go? What controls can I get?

Alar Ruutopold certainly knew - he visited every control and finished 5 minutes ahead of his nearest rival, John Wittington. Jon Sundquist came in third, but was awarded the flukey bastard award for spiking the rather elusive control #62.

All in all everyone had fun and there were no frostbite victims, but then Scott Pleban wasn't there.

BfIO membership brings this newsletter three times a year with information about local O-activities and discounts at the local meets. Your membership in the BfIO helps to provide the resources to make maps and organize events. It also supplies you with hours of enjoyment and challenge from taking part in the events. U.S.O.F. membership includes ten issues of the informative magazine Orienteering North America and discounts at nationally sanctioned meets. By joining either or both organizations you'll be able to more fully enjoy the sport of orienteering.

NEED A RIDE?

Anyone interested in carpooling (whether you can provide a ride, or need a ride) for out-of-town meets, please contact Alar or Eva Ruutopold 874-1197. This is an excellent opportunity for you to meet neighboring orienteers, see lots of great terrain, and ultimately...get to orienteer at larger A meets all over the east coast. This way you can share expenses and have plenty of company for the longer drives.
