Where's the Snow?

No doubt the snow will find us soon. Don't let the cold weather hold you back. Ski orienteering is a great way to throw a little spice into the sport of cross country skiing. If you haven't tried it, this is a great year to try as BFLO is hosting the New York State Ski Orienteering Champs. Mark your Calendar now. This is a two day event to be held Saturday February 25 and Sunday the 26th. The Saturday course will be set at Sardinia and will feature more rough terrain and longer distances. The Sunday course will be held at Byrnclyff Ski and Golf Resort on Route 20A. The course will feature a new map made by Jon Sundquist. The trails will be groomed and the distances shorter, but a fine network of trails will test your map reading skills. As this is a state championship, the hot shots will race on an advanced course, but a recreational course will be set as well. Controls are located along trails so you shouldn't have to take off your skis and trek through the woods to get to a control. Start times haven't been set yet so call Jon Sundquist at 655-5130 for further details. Volunteers to help are needed.

Byrnclyff also offers Ski rental and a heated lodge serving food and drinks, so this might be a good place to bring along a newcomer. Maybe you have friends who ski, but have never tried orienteering. Many foot Orienteers have been introduced to the sport through Ski Orienteering.

Fall Meet Results

Sardinia Forest September 18, 1994

It was a fine day for an O-meet: Sunny and 62 degrees at the start. Lots of participants came from Rochester to help make the event a success. Food was brought by Janet Sundquist and Kathy Bannister and appreciated by all. Kathy also brought a new puppy as did Katy Carrier. A TV set was provided so Bills fans could watch the game as finishing times were posted. No one DNF'd!

Thanks to Al Booth and Mike Gasiewicz who helped throughout the whole meet planning process. They also designed the intermediate and advanced course with advice from Dave Cady. Thanks also to Rick Roll who collected controls on the intermediate and beginner courses.

Unfortunately a control was misplaced on the beginner Course, but fortunately the competitors forgave the organizers.

O Puzzle Solution

At long last. Here is the solution to last issues puzzle.

1994 Northeast Region Series

Orienteers who competed in A meets in the northeast last year were able to earn points for each course they completed. Points were awarded based on the finishing time of each race, with the winner of course getting the most points for that days race. Some BFLO members did rather well.

Ben Cady was the overall champ in the M-12 A category. Jon Sundquist scored a respectable 11th place in the hotly contested M 21A category of 61 participants.

Next year you might like to try an A meet. There is one being planned by the central New York Orienteering Organization at Hammond Hill this summer. This is wine country in the Finger Lakes, might be good to combine with a wine tour.
