

JUNE EVENT AT CHESTNUT RIDGE
by Dave Cady

The BfO event on June 18 will feature the usual three courses. Registration opens at 10:30 with the first start expected at 11:01 a.m. Participants on the longest course will use symbolic control descriptions and will copy from the master map after the start. All others will be able to copy their courses before the start. Because the area is easily navigated, the courses will be on the long side.

The revised map is not available so we will use either color copies of the old map or color copies of the printout of the computer file that contains the revised map. In either case the scale will be 1:10,000. In order to keep costs down by not color copying too many maps, it may be necessary to limit the number of participants. To reserve a place for yourself, call me at 837-3737. Fees are $3 for members and $5 for non-members. Non-members can join after the meet and get the member discount retroactively.

To get to the registration site in the park, follow the signs from the park entrance. Chestnut Ridge Park is located on Route 277 south of the village of Orchard Park. Event Director: Dave Cady, 837-3737.

P.S. This is Fathers Day. Take your Dad Orienteering!

Map Hike

All the Controls have been placed at Sardinia Forest, so Map Hikes should be available for purchase at the Chestnut Ridge meet. The fee is $ 5.00 which includes a marked map, control descriptions and a punchcard. I have heard rumors that a few of the controls have been knocked down by high winds this Spring, so if that is true; please let either Phil Wolfling or Jon Sundquist know so that they can quickly be replaced. Their phone numbers are listed below the schedule on the next page. Remember that map hike controls are quite small, 4"x4", in order to be permanent, so they may be somewhat difficult to see even when you are in the right place. Take your time and enjoy the hunt.

Alternative locations for purchase of Map Hikes include The Great Outdoors on Transit Road, as well as at The Village Green Bookstores on Elmwood Avenue in Buffalo, and on McKinley Parkway in Blasdell.

What is a Rogaine?

You may notice the schedule above includes a Rogaine in August run by the Central New York Orienteering Club. The Sundquist Family participated last year and had a very fun weekend. For Starters we did the six hour version, which was basically a very large scale score-O. You receive a map with a great many controls and try to plan out a six hour hike that will take you to as many controls as possible, without getting you back late to the finish. Partners are a must, and amusing team names add to the fun. The evening brings a delicious cookout and evening of campfire stories about your teams adventures/ mishaps. Unless of course you are masochistic enough to be doing the 24 hour version. We are hoping to do it again this year, new baby and all; so if you are at all interested, give the Sundquists a call.

SARDINIA FOREST MEET REPORT

by Dave Cady

Fine weather greeted participants at Sardinia Forest on April 30, 1995 for BfIO's first meet of the year. The organizer used piggybacking courses so that only 12 controls were needed for the three courses. While this resulted in some course design compromises it also meant a lot less work for the organizer. Participants on the long course had to copy from the master map with the clock running while those on the other courses copied their courses ahead of time. Unfortunately, Jon Sundquist sprained his ankle while running downhill at high speed. Besides Phil Wolfling who briefed newcomers, the organizer would like to thank his family who helped at registration and at the start and finish.

GOAT ISLAND MEET REPORT

by Dave Cady

Beautiful weather and a scenic location combined for a successful meet on May 13, 1995. Special thanks to Betsy Kozuchowski, Wende Westphal, and Jim Hatem for helping out. Bill Jedlicka biked to the meet from Buffalo. Eric Mayer and Mary and David Long came all the way from Rochester. Needless to say, some control locations were in very lovely locations. Participants on the B course were confronted with dramatic changes to the park on the mainland since the map was made. Time for another update!

JULY TRAINING SESSION POSTPONED

The eagerly awaited training session previously announced for July will have to be eagerly awaited for a bit longer as it has been postponed until fall. This postponement is due to the press of other commitments and a fear of burn-out. However the decision is also easily rationalized with the justification that by having the session in the fall there will be more events that the participants can attend in order to practice their new-found skills.

Once again, the focus of the session will be on intermediate skills to enable the white and yellow course orienteer to advance to the orange course. Final details will be announced in the summer newsletter which will also contain the fall schedule.

Orienteering beyond Buffalo

If you plan on doing any traveling or camping in the Northeast this summer be sure to check out the orienteering schedule at your destination. New England has a very active orienteering community, with enough man/womanpower to run many more meets than we can run locally. If you are heading west, Colorado will be featuring a 5 day festival in conjunction with the USOF Convention from June 24-July 2. The scenery is reportedly spectacular.

The Sundquists and the Cadys both subscribe to Orienteering North America which publishes a full schedule of out of town events and could provide you with some information. Alternatively, computer jockeys can check out the latest orienteering meet information on the internet. Jon Sundquist is the computer nerd you need to talk to about this.

The local schedule printed in this newsletter includes meets in the Rochester, Fingerlakes and Southern Ontario regions, so think about these meets if you will be visiting friends or family in these areas. You just might find a nice park and a fun event to share with your friends.
